TU Canterbury House is located just south of Skelly Stadium on the street between Mazzio's and Taco bell. We are the second house on the east side with the red door.

Canterbury at the University of Tulsa is dedicated to the life of the students. We think that it is important to have a church family that you can participate in as a college student.

Our doors are open to all TU students with a safe and welcoming environment.

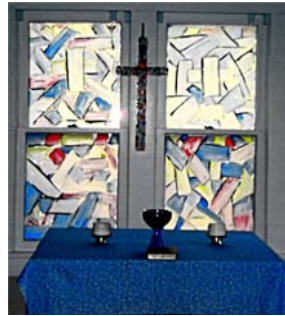

All are welcome at God's table and all are welcome in the Episcopal Church.
